

Grand Opening Event of REI and EHMS

Celebrating the People, the Power and the Possibilities of real estate!

Real Estate Investments (REI) and Elite Home Management Services (EHMS) invite you to their grand re-opening and open house event on Thursday, July 28, 2011. The event will kickoff at 6pm and go on till 9pm at their 461 Nelson Street location in downtown Atlanta. The festivities will include music, food and drinks. A live video feed is being offered to out-of-town and international clients who want to celebrate with them. The RSVP for the event is available at <http://reiatlanta.com/event-details.php?id=5>

To celebrate their 9th year in business, REI and EHMS have remodeled their offices and launched two new websites – REIatlanta.com and EHMSatlanta.com. Both companies can also be accessed through twitter and facebook fan pages.

Real Estate Investments (REI) was founded in 2002. REI is a real estate brokerage firm that specializes in buying and selling of investment properties, REO's, BPO's, first time buyers and new home sales. It is one of the largest real estate investment companies in metro Atlanta. REI's boutique services are designed to help clients find prime properties, with an emphasis on investing in a lifestyle rather than working for a lifetime. REI's highly trained and experienced professionals' works with local and international clients. REI hosts monthly seminars to equip first time home buyers and investors with the knowledge they need to comfortably make informed purchasing decisions.

Elite Home Management Services (EHMS) is a full service property management company. It was formed in 2002 to provide Atlanta real estate investors a one-stop shop for all real estate transactions. EHMS soon became recognized as a leader in tenant placement and property management. EHMS custom designs programs to fulfill each client's investment goals. Many of EHMS's clients are out-of-state and international owners who rely on EHMS's knowledge of the rental market to make their investments profitable. In the last year EHMS has more than doubled their client base. They have purchased state of the art software to facilitate the management of large international investor portfolios. With the way the market is trending, EHMS hopes to celebrate 9 more fruitful years!

REI & EHMS invite you to explore the People, the Power, and the Possibilities of real estate at their Grand Opening Event! Please wear black, white, or red to help them celebrate.
